

CA Trip Permits

Vehicles Operated on One-Trip Permit

4003. A permit, as described in Section 9258, may be issued by the department for operating any of the following vehicles, except a crane:

(a) A vehicle while being moved or operated unladen for one continuous trip from a place within this state to another place either within or without this state or from a place without this state to a place within this state.

The department may issue a quantity of permits under this subsection in booklet form upon payment of the proper fee for each permit contained in said booklet. Each permit shall be valid for only one vehicle and for only one continuous trip. Such permit shall be posted upon the windshield or other prominent place upon a vehicle and shall identify the vehicle to which it is affixed. When so affixed, such permit shall serve in lieu of California registration.

Amended Ch. 326, Stats. 1977. Effective January 1, 1978.

Permits and Decals

25.000 No-Fee Special Moving Permit (VC §4002)

The department may issue a No-Fee Special Moving Permit (REG 172) valid for one day only for movement of a vehicle in accordance with VC §§4002 and 11716. Registration is not required for a vehicle moved or operated under a permit issued by the department.

This permit may be issued:

- For movement of an unregistered vehicle with Planned Non-Operation (PNO) status on file.
- In place of a Transporter Permit as provided in VC §11716. See Section 25.025.
 - To move or operate a vehicle not previously registered from a dealer's, distributor's, or manufacturer's place of business to a place where essential parts of the vehicle are to be altered or supplied.
 - To move a vehicle which is not required to be registered or have a PNO status from one place of storage to another.
- To move a vehicle to or from a garage or repair shop for the purpose of repairs or alteration.
- To move or operate a vehicle for the purpose of dismantling or wrecking and permanent removal from the highways.
- To move a vehicle from one place to another for the purpose of:
 - inspection by the department.
 - assignment of a vehicle identification number.
 - inspection of pollution control devices.
 - weighing the vehicle.
- If construction of the vehicle has not been completed.

Temporary Permit

4156. (a) Other provisions of this code notwithstanding, and except as provided in subdivision (b), the department in its discretion may issue a temporary permit to operate a vehicle when a payment of fees has been accepted in an amount to be determined by, and paid to the department, by the owner or other person in lawful possession of ()¹ the vehicle. The permit shall be subject to ()¹ the terms and conditions, and shall be valid for ()¹ the period of ()² time, that the department shall deem appropriate under the circumstances.

(b) (1) The department shall not issue a temporary permit pursuant to subdivision (a) to operate a vehicle for which a certificate of compliance is required pursuant to Section 4000.3, and for which that certificate of compliance has not been issued, unless the department is presented with sufficient evidence, as determined by the department, that the vehicle has failed its most recent smog check inspection.

(2) Not more than one temporary permit may be issued pursuant to this subdivision to a vehicle owner in a two-year period.

(3) A temporary permit issued pursuant to paragraph (1) is valid for either 60 days after the expiration of the registration of the vehicle or 60 days after the date that vehicle is removed from nonoperation, whichever is applicable at the time that the temporary permit is issued.

(4) A temporary permit issued pursuant to paragraph (1) is subject to Section 9257.5.

Fee: Temporary Permit

9257.5. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c), a fee of fifty dollars ($50) shall be paid for each temporary permit issued pursuant to Section 4156 when a certificate of compliance is required pursuant to Section 4000.3.

(b) After deducting its administrative costs, the department shall deposit fees collected pursuant to subdivision (a) in the High Polluter Repair or Removal Account in the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund.

(c) The department shall not charge a fee pursuant to subdivision (a) if the department is presented at the time the temporary permit is issued with sufficient evidence, as determined by the department, that the owner of the vehicle is an income eligible applicant who had his or her vehicle accepted into the Bureau of Automotive Repair Consumer Assistance Program as established pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 44000) of Part 5 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code.
